7.1.31 Switched Voice Contracts – Business

(N)

This plan offers business customers outbound, switched long distance rates that are based on specific contract terms and monthly minimum commitments. For billing purposes, calls associated with this plan are rounded up to the nearest cent. The monthly call detail associated with this plan is provided to the customer via a website.

Beginning with the first month after the service activation date, the customer's usage will be measured to see if the minimum commitment has been met. If the customer's usage is less than the minimum commitment, the customer will pay to CBAD the difference between the minimum commitment and the actual usage. The following charges are not included when calculating the minimum commitment: calling card, nonrecurring charges, feature charges, taxes, fees and other surcharges.

In the event of early termination of the contracted service, the subscriber shall pay CBAD a lump sum consisting of the following charges:

all unpaid charges for service previously rendered; fifty percent (50%) of the minimum monthly commitment and monthly recurring charges multiplied by the number of months remaining in the term;

Commission approval of the termination liability for switched voice contracts or arrangements is not intended to indicate that the Commission has approved or sanctioned any terms or provisions contained therein. Signatories to such contracts shall be free to pursue whatever legal remedies they may have should a dispute arise.

Upon completion of the term payment plan the customer may renew their contract at the current tariffed rates. If the customer does not renew their contract and does not elect to discontinue service, CBAD will furnish service to the customer on a month-to-month basis at the 1-year rates associated with a $100 monthly minimum commitment.
